

WTC FAQ - ARMY & CODEX

CHAOS KNIGHTS

1. Consider a Wardog Moirax to have the War Dog-Class Keyword and as such it can benefit from Pacts and Damnations and rules that apply to the Wardog keyword.
2. The Rune Of Nak't'graa is still limited by the Traitoris Ambition. A dreadblade cannot mix and match Fell Bonds from both Infernal and Iconoclast.
3. Empyric Fugue affects Psychic Actions.
4. A House Korvax unit will still gain the Daemonic Surge traitoris ambition and the Forged In Terror household bond, as well as have access to all Chaos Knight stratagems, relics and warlord traits (including the house Korvanx ones) when part of Belakor's army of renown through Servants of the Dark Master.
5. Keywords gained through favour of the dark gods (like Tzeentch, ...) are not considered faction keywords and as such cannot be used to make same-allegiance (like Tzeentch) Detachments..
6. Ravenous Pterrorshades will trigger a morale test to a unit that sustains casualties even if that unit would not have to test for morale prior to resolving the dread test.
